by caring for your air

Benefits of being an Aircare Distributor ...

Why Choose Aircare?

- Aircare is one of seven companies forming the Fenchurch Environmental Group, one of Europe's largest filtration experts.
- Aircare is experienced in both UK and overseas markets, with over 15 years of knowledge and understanding of the air-cleaning industry.
- The patented Bactiguard anti-microbial air filter is unique to the Aircare range, enabling further eradication of a wider range of micro-organisms.
- Passing the air through Activated Carbon Filters is the only effective means of removing odours and gases, and is utilised in the Aircare 2000 Series.
- Aircare gives full and on-going technical support; from detailed test reports, BS certification and independent surveys ensuring the effectiveness and longevity of your system.
- All products in the range are CE marked and carry TUV certification.
- Marketing support is available to help you establish the Aircare 2000 Series in your marketplace.
